A Selective Financial Services Presentation

Selective Financial Services

With elite of advisors, Selective Financial Services is not to be considered just a single company, but an independent and creative wealth management group

With elite of advisors, Selective Financial Services is not to be considered just a single company, but an independent and creative wealth management group backed by individual investors, families and their corporations. It provides credit enhancement to established relations since more than 30 years. The Group enables credit enhancement on a confidential and strictly private placement basis primarily to existing long term clients.

It engages in diverse and creative service options to suit individual needs of its customers always with the aim of leveraging financial possibilities to the max for each individual client. From structured investment opportunities for private wealth accumulation to the application of sophisticated self-financing solutions to projects in traditional market sectors or innovative, fast-growing global markets.

Investors & Prime Bank Relations

Through its investors it also has strong ties with various World Prime Banks as well as independent investment banking boutiques run by their major shareholders.

Through its investors it also has strong ties with various World Prime Banks as well as independent investment banking boutiques run by their major shareholders, who can assist with numerous services that can open opportunities by leveraging existing financial possibilities. It serves and also utilizes the resources of investment banks and duly registered and licensed securitization experts to structure and lend financial assets for an agreed upon period of time to asset managers, brokers, family offices, venture capitalists, private equity firms and private banks and financial institutions thereby helping them to serve commercial private sector companies.

We have come a long way

Already 1949 the predecessors funded major projects in Germany.

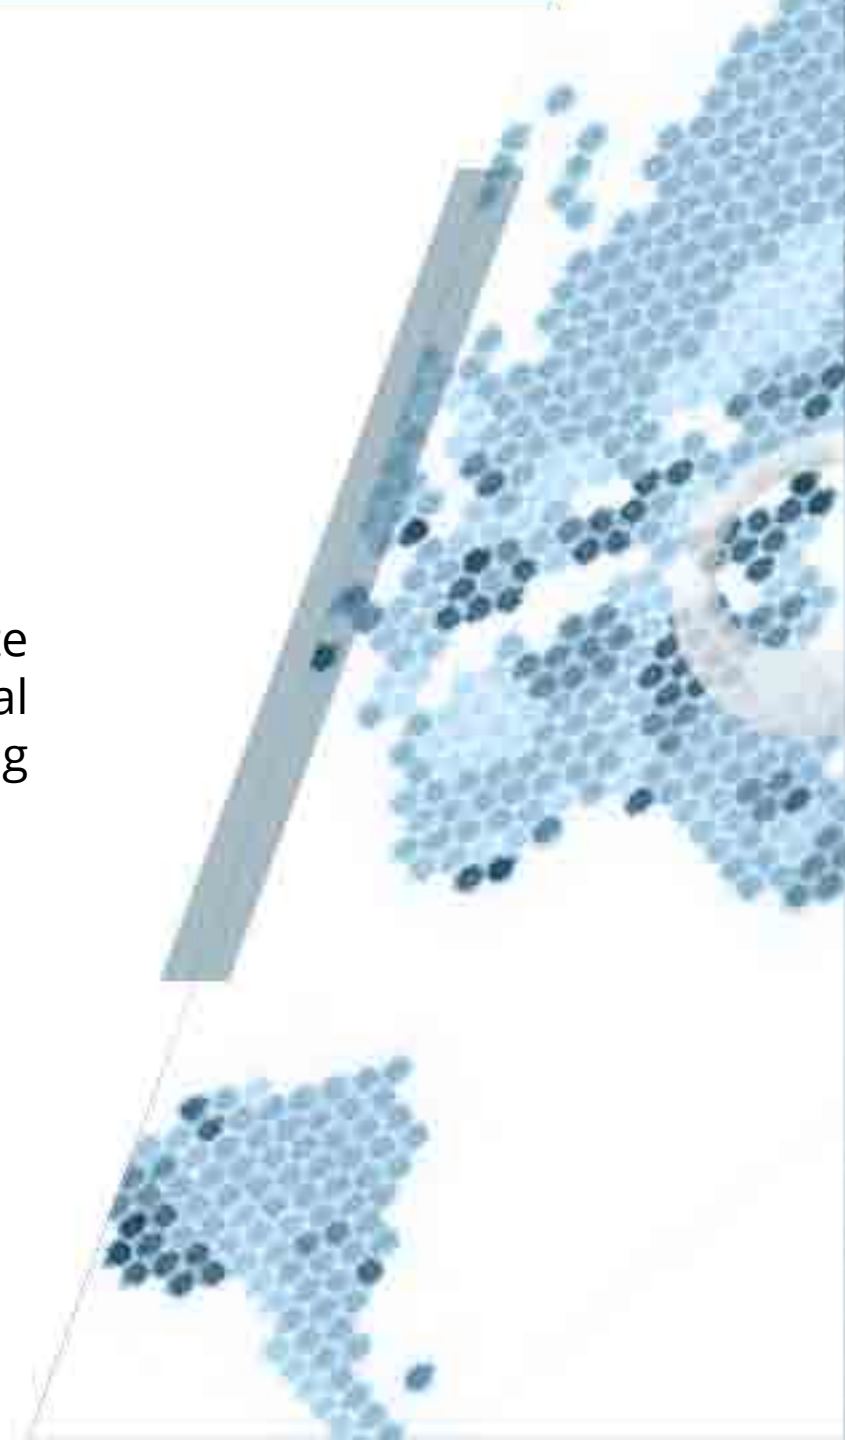

Already 1949 the predecessors funded major projects in Germany and since, the organization expanded throughout the globe with operations in Switzerland, Ireland, Hong Kong, Singapore, Gibraltar, Cyprus and a number of offshore locations. Today, Selective Financial Services are available to principals of financial substance, and qualified companies and corporations around the world.

A Global Client Base

Typical beneficiaries of the group's resources are commercial private sector companies and entrepreneurs.

Typical beneficiaries of the group's resources are commercial private sector companies and entrepreneurs capable of utilizing financial enhancement services to profit from opportunities, rather than utilizing funds invested for the long term in secure assets.

Vision

Selective Financial Services provides clients with a 360 degree vision

Selective Financial Services provides clients with a 360 degree vision and solution, which takes into account private wealth management as well as corporate interest. Client's requirements and transactions are analysed from a top down strategic perspective, which goes beyond consulting by accessing capital markets and private structures.

Innovation

Bespoke Innovation combined with Financial Engineering ensures that clients' expectations in leveraging financial possibilities are achieved.

Bespoke Innovation combined with Financial Engineering ensures that clients' expectations in leveraging financial possibilities are achieved. Such expertise is determined by creative multi-lateral thinking. Methodology is to focus on the required result and work on the logistics to acquire it. The Group now combines the creativity of a boutique private wealth company with the expertise and resources, which are otherwise only found in large corporate enterprises.

Enhancement to leveraging of Financial Possibilities

The global network of elite advisers all contribute to a wealth of deep on-the-ground knowledge.

The global network of elite advisers all contribute to a wealth of deep on-the-ground knowledge which provides our clients with an unrivalled perspective and in depth insight to master any challenges a client may have. With access to the combined experience and connections of peers across the globe in numerous sectors, the Group avails benefits to clients through its advisors and to gain access to exceptional market knowledge. This enables clients to benefit from superior strategies, and with a focus on quality can achieve and guarantee smooth execution.

Targeted Innovative Services

Selective Financial Services encourages its management to support and participates in the deployment by its financial partners of more sustainable finance. Beyond a simple financial analysis, the company management is directed to a commitment to companies supporting specialized working groups in order to develop Social Responsible Investment practices, to operate responsibly, and strive to have a positive impact on our stakeholders and society as a whole through our activities and engagements. With a long-term vision, a commitment to economic, environmental and social sustainability will build a social responsible framework from these principles, which are seen integral factors determining the success of the business over the long run.

Philanthropy

Implementing a philanthropic project gives meaning to your heritage and enriches life.

Implementing a philanthropic project gives meaning to your heritage and enriches life. It is a way to bring together all the members of a family and all the generations around a common action for the benefit of associative projects or a family foundation. Giving is an honour to support individuals, families and charitable foundations in their philanthropic endeavours. The Group uses extensive global advisory capabilities to work with philanthropists across the charitable spectrum, including those starting their own autonomous vehicles. Such action ensures finding and funding projects for generations to come.
